Pentecost Sunday: John 20:19-23

Jesus passed through the locked doors of the house in which the disciples were. His arrival among them was completely unexpected. Did they dread his reproaches, all but the beloved disciple, having abandoned him in his terrible hour of need?

Ask in Earnest

Only when we believe ourselves to be forgiven, can we forgive. Is there someone I need to forgive this very day?

Before they could express any remorse, he simply said to them, 'Peace be with you'. It is an expression of unconditional love. We are called on to show the same unmerited forgiveness in our own lives. Only when we believe ourselves to be forgiven, can we do the same to others. Is there someone I need to forgive this very day?

Today we celebrate Pentecost when the Spirit was given to the disciples. It is the birthday of the Church, the day when the timid and uncertain apostles were transformed into bold preachers of Jesus and his resurrection. The same Spirit is still as active in the Church today, transforming it - and us - into better missionaries.

Let us pray in a special way for the Church, spread throughout the world under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Let us ask for the grace to grow in love for the Church, which is the body of Christ himself, and of which I am a living part. It is through her that we receive the Word, the Eucharist, forgiveness of sins and so much more.

Jesus came to the disciples at the time of their great fear. He came to them although the doors were locked. He comes to me too, wherever I am locked in by fear, and he gives me his peace. And Jesus breathes upon me and gives me the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of peace and truth and joy. I can turn to this Spirit for help whenever fear threatens to overwhelm me in my life. Ask yourself: Is faith a source of peace for me? Have I ever found myself in that room with the disciples? and then what happened?

The disciples recognize Jesus, but he is not the same Jesus they had known; and His first words to them are 'Peace be with you'. This peace he offers is ultimately a deep and heartfelt awareness of Emmanuel, 'God with us'.

Thomas the doubter is the patron saint of so many of us. When it comes to the supernatural and spiritual, we need to be sceptical. Jesus respected Thomas's doubts, and guided his fingers into the wounds. Lord, you call me blessed because I believe without the evidence of my senses. You matter more to me than what I can see, hear, touch or smell; but there are times when I falter. Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief.

Something to Think About

We get through to people to the extent that we have unconditional regard for them as human beings. –Carl Rogers

Time is the only coin of your life. It is the only coin you have, and only you can determine how it will be spent. Be careful, lest you let other people spend it for you. –Carl Sandburg

Tasks must be delegated without responsibilities being abdicated. – Author Unknown

Let him who would move the world first move himself. –Socrates

The only way to deal with fear is to confront it directly, to stop and look at it. Then, you can make it go away. Otherwise, you spend your life running from it and fear always runs at least as fast as you. –Carl Hammerschlag

Keep doing good deeds long enough and you'll probably turn out a good person in spite of yourself. –Louis Auchincloss

Respect yourself if you would have others respect you. –Baltasar Gracian

People say, "what is the sense of our small effort?" They cannot see that we must lay one brick at a time, take on step at a time. –Dorothy Day

A Joke

Little Johnny was afraid of the dark. One evening his mother asked him to bring in the mop from the back porch. Little Johnny whined, "It's too dark out there." Mother said to him, "There's nothing in the dark to be afraid of." "Besides," she added, "Jesus is everywhere, even in the dark and even in the back porch." Slowly little Johnny opened the door just enough to put him hand out as he made this trembling request, "Jesus, please hand me the mop."

Offering a Mass

Offering Mass for a particular Intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. A Mass offered to someone is for them to receive special graces. Masses are said for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance of someone deceased, or to honor the birthday or special anniversary for someone. If you'd like a Mass, please stop by or call the Parish Office at 941-426-2500 for available dates and times.

- Our office can also make arrangements with the Oblate Fathers for a perpetual Mass. For both, we will provide keepsake cards for you to send to whomever you choose.
- The stipend or offering signifies the sacrificial nature of giving something of yourself to associate more intimately with Christ who offers himself in the Eucharist.

A stipend for a Mass Intention can range from $10-$20 per request. Contact the Parish Office to request.

Become Catholic

San Pedro parish offers the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program for those wishing to become Catholic

Our adult faith formation ministry must engage the particular needs and interests of our adult parishioners. To be faithful and effective we will offer, over time, a comprehensive and systematic presentation and exploration of the core elements of Catholic faith and practice—a complete initiation into a Catholic way of life. It will do so in a way that is accessible to adults and relates to their life experiences, helping them to form a Christian conscience and to live their lives in the world as faithful disciples of Jesus.

This integration of actual life experience, diverse adult learning needs, the study of Scripture, and the teaching of the Church's tradition will create a vibrant learning environment. It will also challenge the creativity of those who establish the direction, plan the content, and provide programs of adult faith formation.
