Give us this day our daily bread.

When God brought his people out of slavery into freedom, he fed them with manna in the desert. (cf. Exodus 16)

Each day the people went out to gather up this mysterious food, and there was always enough for everyone. The day before the sabbath, they gathered two days' worth – God did not make them violate his law of sabbath rest. But every other day, if they gathered more than they needed, the “extra” would spoil, because God would provide the bread they need - each day.

In teaching us to pray for our “daily bread”, Jesus draws our attention back to that desert wandering. Then, God showed his presence and care by feeding his people with bread every morning and with flesh – a flock of quail that surrounded the camp at night – in the evening. Now Jesus himself gives us his very flesh as the bread of life.

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven...the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” (John 6:51)

Like the manna that came every day, Jesus gives himself to us daily in the offering of the Mass. Although no one has to go to daily Mass - though many who want to come are unable to do so because of their schedules – yet every day men and women, young and old are drawn to receive this “daily bread” of the Holy Eucharist. Even when we are unable to receive our Lord in Holy Communion, we can make a spiritual communion each day. “Jesus, although I cannot receive you sacramentally today, I ask you to come into my heart. I long for you, I hunger for you.”

My parents taught me as a child to make the sign of the Cross whenever we passed a Catholic Church, a sign of reverence for the Lord present there in the Eucharist. What a simple reminder of the presence of Jesus, right there in the tabernacle, right in the midst of this day. And I learned to long for the next time I could receive Him at Mass.

Every time you drive past the Church, every time you say the Lord’s prayer, reach out for that “daily bread” which is Jesus himself, and look forward to the next time you can receive him in Holy Communion.

-Fr. Tom

Acts of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to possess you within my soul. Since I am unable now to receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as being already there, and unite myself wholly to you. Never, never permit me to be separated from you. - St. Alphonsus Liguori

I believe that You, O Jesus, are in the most holy Sacrament. I love You and desire You. Come into my heart. I embrace You. Oh, never leave me. May the burning and most sweet power of your love, O Lord Jesus Christ, I beseech You, absorb my mind that I may die through love of Your love, who were graciously pleased to die through love of my love. - St. Francis of Assisi

Welcome Mary

INTO YOUR HOME

From May through October, our Pilgrim Statue of our Lady of Fatima will make the rounds of the parish households. Jesus entrusted his mother Mary to the disciple whom he loved, and like that disciple, we can also "take Mary into our home." (John 19:27) Jesus entrusted Mary to us, and Mary always leads us closer to her Son, Jesus.

Sign up to receive the statue for a week and take advantage of this special opportunity to pray as a family or with neighbors and friends. We will provide the materials needed to pray the Rosary together, and other resources for prayer and reflection.

For more information, or to sign up, please contact the parish office at 941-426-2500, or at office@sanpedrocc.org.

Spiritual Adoption Program

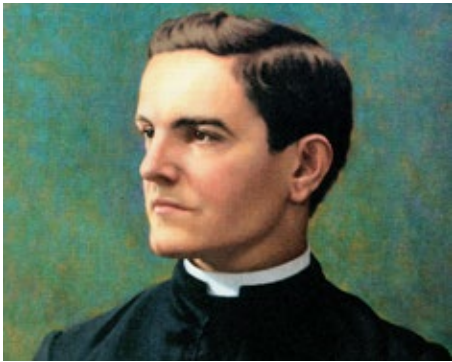

Month 3: Developing Baby – "I can suck my thumb!"

Your spiritually adopted baby is quite active in the womb now - - although his mother won't feel him for another couple of months. If his mother's womb had a window, you could watch your spiritually adopted baby squint, swallow and move his tongue. He can make a tight fist if you touch his palm. He is breathing amniotic fluid which continues until birth, although he obtains the oxygen his body needs through the umbilical cord. The baby you are praying for weighs one ounce. Early this month – at just 9 weeks – he began to suck his thumb.

Psalm 139:14-16 - "I praise you, because I am wonderfully made; wonderful are your works! My very self you know.

My bones are not hidden from you. When I was being made in secret, fashioned in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw me unformed; in your book all are written down; my days were shaped, before one came to be.

Good and Gentle God, we pray in gratitude for our fathers and for all men who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. Give them the strength to live and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly. Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of parenthood. Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most. Amen.

OBLATE OF THE VIRGIN MARY

NEW MOVIE! "A MUST-WATCH"

Sound of Freedom

"Sound of Freedom" is the incredible true story of a Federal Agent who quit his job and devoted his life to rescuing children around the world from human trafficking. It will be shown in theatres nationwide on Tuesday, July 4th. For a preview, and a list of local theatres showing the film, visit <https://www.imdb.com/title/tt7599146/> The movie, though heartbreaking, is important; its goal is to have two million people attend the film to represent the estimated two million children who are trafficked every year, to spread awareness and inspire people to work to stop this terrible crime against God's children.
