CATHOLIC CHURCH - THE KEY TO THE FUTURE!

The Feast of Peter & Paul

This icon is based on an ancient image that depicts St. Peter (right) and St. Paul (left) as founders of the Roman Church. Together they hold a miniature building that represents the Church. This icon is unique in showing Jesus in two representations: present in the Church with his Mother and watching over the Church on earth from his heavenly glory.

Jesus said to his apostles: 'Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.' -Matthew 10:40

The Truth Will Set You Free.

This week we celebrated the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul on June 29.

It is a special day for our parish under the patronage of St. Peter, but also for the universal Church as these Apostles are founders of the Church of Rome, from where the faith spread to much of the world.

The Apostles who preached the Gospel were not simply spreading a new religion: they were proclaiming the truth revealed by God that is the foundation of human freedom.

There cannot be any freedom without truth. Truth tells us who we are, what we are made for, and how to respond to our calling to eternal happiness. The world offers all sorts of answers to these questions: you are whatever you choose to be; you are made to work for money so that you can buy things; you are a slave to your passions; you are the sum of your failures; you are alone. None of that is true, and no one can live by lies and also be free. The truth will set you free: knowing that you are created by God for knowing, loving, and serving him in this life and being happy with him forever in the life to come. Happiness in this life depends on knowing and living this truth, which is the source of authentic freedom.

St. Peter and St. Paul gave testimony to Jesus Christ by their words and actions so that the whole world could know the truth. It is fitting that we celebrate these great apostles the week before our Independence Day, because their mission made the truth of the Gospel known to the world and that truth is the source of true freedom.

-Fr. Nate

Different GIFTS TO GIVE...

Both St. Peter and St. Paul are founders of the Roman Church but had different gifts to give. St. Peter was the first Pope. He consecrated bishops in many cities, especially important cities such as Jerusalem, Antioch, and Rome. The role of Peter and these important churches was to teach matters of faith and morals and clarify doctrines for the whole Church.

St. Paul also traveled and founded churches, but most remained small, local churches. He wrote letters to the people in these small communities about the struggles they faced within the community and with the pagan culture they lived alongside. Many of his letters give practical advice about their situations, as well as timeless advice for all believers.

St. Peter and St. Paul are celebrated together on the same day, in part representing the relationship between the Universal Church (Peter's mission) and the Local Church (Paul's mission). We experience the Christian life in our local church (parish and diocese) in our own family, language, and culture, but our profession of faith and the Sacraments keeps us in union with the Universal Church through all space and time.

Sign up to receive the statue for a week and take advantage of this special opportunity to pray as a family or with neighbors and friends. We will provide the materials needed to pray the Rosary together, and other resources for prayer and reflection.

For more information, or to sign up, please contact the parish office at 941-426-2500, or at office@sanpedrocc.org.

The San Pedro Library Recommends

This month's focus: Children's Books

The Five Love Languages of Children by Gary Chapman & Ross Campbell, M.D. "You can learn to speak your child's love language – fluently. Discover your child's primary language: quality time, words of affirmation, gifts, actions of service, and physical touch. – and learn what you can do to effectively convey unconditional feelings of respect, affection, and commitment that will resonate in your child's soul..." Does your child speak a different language? Sometimes they are filled with gratitude and affection, and other times they seem totally indifferent. Attitude. Behavior. Development. Everything depends on the love relationship between you and your child.

Jason – A Story of Triumph by Cynthia Arthur-Wong "An inspirational story of how a grandmother's love helped a boy with Down's syndrome... Cynthia took Jason into her home... She let her love and her strong faith in God – and in Jason–be her guide." This enchanting book was written by a former parishioner of San Pedro in North Port, FL.
