How are you doing today?

How are you doing today? If you were to ask others how they're doing, the common answer you get is "fine." However, if you were to ask a homeless person how their day is going, what kind of response do you think you'll get?

Ask them how things are going, and you will get a very honest answer. I was talking to a homeless person, and he said to me "I made a lot of mistakes in life. Eventually my life started making no sense. I ended up on the streets." This man continued to talk about his belief that God will one day make all things better for him. "One day it will all make sense." It is common to experience a time where nothing makes sense. Maybe there was a failure in a business, family, or a friendship. When things fall apart and all seems to be ruined, the answer is that it is time to believe. It is time for faith! If you feel that your life is starting to fall apart, apparently by chance, perhaps because of the ill will of others, or on the occasion of terminal illness, death, economic issues, or loss of a position, take yourself to prayer--Not prayer that is going to help you tell God what to do. That's not very helpful prayer. God already knows what to do. But prayer that will reassure you that you are in the hands of God. This requires trust! Trust in God does not mean that everything is going to work out just the way we want it to or that everything is going to be back to "normal." Trust means that, whatever happens, we believe that God is there with us and that, if we cling to him, he will bring good out of that particular situation. In your own life, dark times will come. If they are very dark and bitter, know that you have plenty of company. You might not end up homeless but know that we have a Redeemer who has suffered for us. Christ is the one who will bring joy out of sorrow, hope out of despair, love out of hate. This is our hope. All we need to do is trust!

Ordination

DEACON JAY-AR SAN JUAN, OMV

The Oblates of the Virgin Mary are pleased to announce the upcoming ordination of our brother, Deacon Jay-Ar San Juan, OMV, to the priesthood through the laying on of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit by the Most Reverend Bishop Robert P. Reed at St. Peter Chanel Church (our Oblate parish in California) on Saturday, July 22, 2023 at 11 am PT.

Dcn. Jay-Ar was born and raised in the city of Bandar Seri Begawan in the small country of Brunei. His family are members of Couples for Christ, a Catholic lay movement from the Philippines, and he was a member of the Kids for Christ and Youth for Christ ministries. In 2008, his family migrated to Vancouver, Canada, where he earned an AA from Corpus Christi College and a BA from Christ the King Seminary. He first learned about the Oblates through the VISION Vocations Network and was attracted to their spirituality and community life. Dcn. Jay-Ar entered the Oblates in September 2017, professed first vows in August 2019, professed final vows and was ordained a deacon in January 2023.

Let's keep Deacon Jay-Ar in our prayers as he prepares for his ordination!

RESPECT FOR LIFE. THE MOST FOUNDATIONAL MINISTRY. Support for Pregnancy Solutions

We at San Pedro have been helping Pregnancy Solutions physically and financially for years, and they need our help now. The items most needed are baby bath towel sets, new sleepers and outfits (newborn-24 months, no onesies needed now), plush blankets and baby swaddles, crib sheets, hand breast pumps, bibs, bottles, pacifiers, baby Tylenol and baby Motrin.

PREGNANT? YOU ARE NOT ALONE!

DID YOU KNOW there is a local pregnancy help center where you can receive accurate information about your options, receive a free pregnancy test and see your child via an ultrasound without charge?

Resources for financial and emotional help are available. You will find that the people at these places can help you find the support you need to make the right choice. If you need housing, a maternity home or a home for moms and babies after birth may be a good option for you so you can pursue your education and career.

A local church may be able to help you with additional assistance and spiritual guidance personalized specifically to your needs.

Welcome Mary

INTO YOUR HOME

From May through October, our Pilgrim Statue of our Lady of Fatima will make the rounds of the parish households. Jesus entrusted his mother Mary to the disciple whom he loved, and like that disciple, we can also "take Mary into our home." (John 19:27) Jesus entrusted Mary to us, and Mary always leads us closer to her Son, Jesus.

Sign up to receive the statue for a week and take advantage of this special opportunity to pray as a family or with neighbors and friends. We will provide the materials needed to pray the Rosary together, and other resources for prayer and reflection.

For more information, or to sign up, please contact the parish office at 941-426-2500, or at office@sanpedrocc.org.

Developing Baby - "I had a dream!"

MONTH 4, SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Well, your little spiritually adopted baby now weighs six ounces. She has fingernails and eyelashes. She has her own unique fingerprints, which will remain the same until she dies. Her taste buds are working. Her sense of hearing is developing and present at 14 weeks. There are no major developments anymore. At this month rapid eye movements (REMs) can be detected – a sign of dreaming. Your spiritually adopted baby is already well-formed, internally and externally. All she needs now is time to gain weight and grow strong. What a miracle she is!

Isaiah 49:1 - "Before birth the Lord called me, from my mother's womb he gave me my name."

- Awaken your spirit's light and joy
- Create deeply meaningful and loving relationships
- Heal and balance your body, mind, and spirit
- Focus your means of service to Humanity and the Earth
- Learn from Nature's cycles how to flow with life
- Find inner support for your life choices" –Ralph Blum

Testimonial: "If you haven't been to our San Pedro's library, you're missing a gold mine! So much to offer, so much to learn. I recently borrowed a book on Padre Pio (of which they have many). This one is "Padre Pio: The True Story" by C. Bernard Ruffin. I thought I knew so much about this Saint, but I learned so much more.

Do you want to learn more about your patron saint (or any other saint)? Come in and sign out a book." -Deacon Rich

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.
